SIDNEY C. SINGER

Service to Youth Award Recipients

The award was named in honor of Sidney Singer, who served Piedmont youth in a variety of capacities from the 1950s until his death in 1985. His dedication to the community was an inspiration. This award recognizes a Piedmont adult volunteer's extraordinary service to Piedmont youth over an extended period of time, including during the past year.

The recipient need not have been involved in Scouting. Recipients are dedicated to helping young people grow in positive ways by demonstrating and nurturing character, caring, connection to community, competence, and confidence.
